

UNAFORTIS becomes official Avaloq Implementation Partner

Zug, 20 June 2016 – Avaloq has awarded UNAFORTIS Implementation Partner status. As a result, UNAFORTIS rises into the ranks of Switzerland's leading providers of Avaloq-related services. UNAFORTIS currently employs 30 Avaloq experts who have successfully completed over 50 projects for more than 25 clients over the last twelve years.

UNAFORTIS steadily continues its growth trajectory and not only strengthens its presence in the Swiss market but also increases its activities in the United Kingdom. In addition to Avaloq-related services, which still represent the core of its offerings, the company also provides complementary services in testing and business consulting.

As a result, UNAFORTIS has positioned itself as a «Full Service Provider» of Avaloq services on the one hand and, on the other hand, distinguishes itself with a selected range of offerings in areas such as digital banking, wealth advisory, asset management, fund administration, custody, regulations, investment processing, payments and credit operations.

«Our offerings ensure that we are optimally positioned to support to our clients in their digital transformation and the handling of an increasing amount of regulatory requirements» says André Pierre Müller, Partner at UNAFORTIS. «Our combination of proven experts and business engineers, experienced Avaloq experts, IT specialists and test engineers ensures our clients' success throughout all project stages and in the integration of complex systems landscapes», adds Roland Roccioletti, Partner at UNAFORTIS.

«We appreciate the merger of our long-standing partners and deem it as a positive signal to the Avaloq Community. We win a very strong Implementation Partner who has the expertise, experience and the critical size required to assume responsibility for entire projects and to conclude them successfully» says Raphael Landolt, Head of Global Partner Management at Avaloq, about the merger.

UNAFORTIS was created on 1 January 2016 through the merger of beon ag and WeeDoo AG, both of which were long-standing and well-established companies in the market. With their merger, they turned UNAFORTIS into one of the leading providers of Avaloq services in Switzerland. UNAFORTIS currently employs more than 40 consultants, 30 of which are Avaloq-certified experts.
